ZIPWAKE ANNOUNCE NEW DISTRIBUTOR FOR NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM & GERMANY

Zipwake proudly presents Exalto which was established in the Netherlands already back in 1965 and are active as a wholesale/distributor for marine equipment for both the leisure and the light commercial segments.

Exalto services over 2800 customers with a very extensive product offering. Their key drive is to serve the market not only with premium products, but especially with "best-in-class" service and advice. For that purpose, they have a strong and very knowledgeable technical staff employed.

Exalto continuously invests in development of both people, products, marketing, facilities, state of the art web site as well as logistical excellence.

Zipwake is looking forward to developing the business in the Netherlands, Belgium and Germany together with Exalto and we are convinced this will be a perfect match.

"We are proud of the assignment as the Zipwake distributor for the Netherlands, Belgium and Germany. Zipwake supplies an excellent trim control system which optimizes the comfort and dynamics of boats. We are looking forward to successfully bringing this product to our market in cooperation with the Zipwake team" says Jurrian Krijnen, General Manager of Exalto.
